“There are few hours in life more agreeable than the ceremony known as afternoon tea.”

Henry James from The Portrait of a Lady, 1881

There is no more delightful and quintessentially British institution than afternoon tea and nowhere better to enjoy it than Jesmond Dene House. The ritual of tea served in fine bone china and three-tiered stands overflowing with cakes, dainty finger sandwiches and our signature freshly baked, still warm scones. Staff glide through the rooms, music plays quietly in the background, whilst a mix of guests – from ladies in smart dresses, to overseas tourists visiting Hadrian’s Wall and local families celebrating their Grandmother’s birthday – all enjoy a traditional afternoon tea.

Whilst, in the short term, it is harder for our guests to come to us, we have decided that tea must continue to be served and that, if our guests can’t come to Jesmond Dene House, we must bring Jesmond Dene House to them!

Elegantly presented in an ornate box tied with a ribbon, our Takeout Afternoon Tea is no less special and made with just as much care. It makes the perfect treat for loved ones and transports the ceremony of Afternoon Tea at Jesmond Dene House into your home.

From our House to Yours.
